

God's version of your story

Most of us live with labels others have put on us, or even some we have put on ourselves. But God tells our stories differently. The labels He speaks over His people are always welcoming, loving and encouraging. He tells our stories with mercy.

Old labels

God's labels

